

Assistant United States Attorney Patrick F. Caruso

Patrick Caruso joined the United States Attorney's Office in 2001. He is currently a narcotics prosecutor assigned to the Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Task Force, and, in 2018, was appointed as the office's Opioid Coordinator. During his tenure in the United States Attorney's Office, AUSA Caruso has served as Deputy Chief of the Violent Crimes and Narcotics Unit and as the office's Ethics Advisor. Prior to joining the United States Attorney's Office, AUSA Caruso worked at the law firm of Cummings & Lockwood in Hartford, Connecticut, and served as a law clerk to the Honorable Thomas P. Smith, United States Magistrate Judge. AUSA Caruso graduated magna cum laude from Quinnipiac College School of Law in 1996. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Connecticut.