

Kim Duell

For 35 years Kim has practiced Family Law constantly seeking better ways to support families going through this process. She has extensive training in Mediation, Collaborative Divorce and has worked extensively with children as a Guardian and AFMC.

She is a member of two practice groups Collaborative Divorce Lawyers Association of Greater Hartford (www.Collaborative-Divorce.com) and Collaborative Divorce Professionals (www.CollaborativeDivorceProfessionals-CT.com) and has presented at CBA and local bar association and practice groups workshops on a variety of topics.

Her goal is to provide an array of options to clients and families with an emphasis on problem solving and improve communication skills for all.

Kim's law practice is in Hartford, Connecticut, where she brings her love of Mediation and Yoga to the world of Family Law.
