

Mary-Christy Fisher

Christy Fisher is currently Senior Counsel with the Connecticut Veterans Legal Center (CVLC), co-located within the VA's Errera Community Care Center in West Haven, CT. In medical-legal partnership with VA doctors and other providers, CVLC provides civil legal assistance to veterans who seek services at Errera.

Christy was previously affiliated with New Haven Legal Assistance in a number of staff and management roles, including serving as the liaison to HELP, a medical-legal partnership with the former Hospital of Saint Raphael, designed to represent children and their families that was staffed by area law students. She worked on a national level as a Program Counsel with the Legal Services Corporation's Office of Program Performance. And, throughout her legal career, Christy has engaged in clinical law teaching.

In addition to prior experience as Director of GW's Consumer HELP Bankruptcy Clinic and with Yale Law School's Community Legal Clinic, she has been team-teaching at Quinnipiac as part of the CVLC Veterans Clinic.

Ms. Fisher is a Connecticut Bar Foundation James W. Cooper Fellow.
