Howard M. Krieger, Ph.D.

Howard M. Krieger, Ph.D. is a Psychologist licensed by the State of Connecticut. Dr. Krieger received his doctorate from American University in 1977, his post-doctoral training at the Yale University School of Medicine and has engaged in independent practice since licensure in 1979.

Dr. Krieger is a founding partner of Connecticut Resource Group, LLC. He is a member of the American Psychological Association, the Connecticut Psychological Association, the National Register of Health Service Providers in Psychology and the Connecticut Council for Non-Adversarial Divorce, where he served on the Board of Directors and as Vice President.

Dr. Krieger served as a Special Master at the Regional Family Trial Docket from its inception until 2014. He has provided training for the State of Connecticut Judicial Department, training judges, attorneys, family relations officers, adult and child probation officers and supervisory staff. He has served as an instructor at the Judicial Department's Guardian Ad Litem/Attorney for the Minor Child Training Academy and has made numerous presentations and training on a local state and national level. Dr. Krieger is a trained divorce mediator and collaborative professional.

Dr. Krieger's areas of practice interest include psychotherapy, assessment, mediation and consultation/teaching. His interests are applied to intellectual, personality and neuropsychological assessment, school related consultation, developmental disabilities and high conflict divorce. Dr. Krieger has served as a custody evaluator, mediator and collaborative professional and provides parenting consultation services. He has testified in many of Connecticut's family, civil, criminal and probate courts, providing expert witness testimony on psychological matters.
