

Elizabeth Leaming

Senior Assistant State's Attorney Elizabeth C. Leaming has been a prosecutor for the last 23 years handling all cases of child exploitation and sexual assault that occur in Tolland County. She has tried over 80 cases to verdict and prepared hundreds of victims and witnesses for their trial testimony.

In addition to her trial work, Attorney Leaming sits on several state-wide committees that focus on the investigation and prosecution of child abuse as well as the protection of children. Additionally, she teaches on the topic of sexual assault to law enforcement, DCF, medical providers and school administrators and teachers.
