

Katarzyna (Kasia) Lessard, JD, APRN, FNP-C

Katarzyna (Kasia) Lessard, JD, APRN, FNP-C is a Clinical Assistant Professor of Nursing at Quinnipiac University. She earned a Juris Doctor from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 2004 and practiced intellectual property and technology law for several years prior to pursuing a career in nursing. During her legal career she also had experience with the juvenile court system. Kasia received a Master's degree in nursing and a certificate in health professions education from the University of Connecticut in 2014. She is board certified as a Family Nurse Practitioner and specializes in maternal-child health and advanced diabetes management. Her interests include general health policy, simulation in nursing education, and interprofessional collaboration in healthcare.