

Darren Pruslow

Darren works as a staff attorney for Connecticut Veterans Legal Center (CVLC). He has focused his career on helping the less fortunate, motivating him to become a public interest attorney. Darren was a member of the committee that founded the Connecticut Mediation Association (CTMA) and currently serves as its president. In addition, he co-teaches the CVLC Veterans Clinic at Quinnipiac University School of Law and teaches numerous classes as an adjunct in the University of New Haven Legal Studies Department.

Prior to working at the CVLC, he was running a small practice focused on “low bono” representation. He graduated from Quinnipiac University School of Law, has a Master’s in Education from Hofstra University, and a Bachelor’s degree in sociology from the College of the Holy Cross. He is admitted to practice law in Connecticut, New York and Massachusetts.
