

Dr. Karen Ragaisis, DNP, APRN, PMHNP-BC, PMHCNS-BC, CARN-AP

Dr. Karen Ragaisis has been Clinical Assistant Professor at the Quinnipiac University School of Nursing since August 2015. She graduated from the University of Bridgeport with her baccalaureate degree and obtained her doctorate from the University of Massachusetts Boston. Her robust clinical practice includes inpatient, outpatient, consultation-liaison psychiatry, and psychiatric emergency services at Hartford Hospital. In addition to dual certification as a Psychiatric Clinical Nurse Specialist and Psychiatric Nurse Practitioner, she's a certified Advanced Practice Addictions Nurse. Karen is President of the Connecticut Chapter; of the International Nurses Society on Addictions. She volunteers as a nurse consultant for HAVEN, a confidential assistance and monitoring program for Connecticut's healthcare professionals facing the challenges of chemical dependency, mental illness, physical illness, or emotional issues.