

Gary A. Roberge

Gary A. Roberge is the Executive Director of the State of Connecticut Judicial Branch, Court Support Services Division (JBCSSD). He directs and manages over 1,250 employees involved with Adult and Juvenile Probation, Family Services (criminal and civil), Juvenile Detention, Alternative Sanctions and Pretrial Release (Bail). He guides the planning, coordination and implementation of the Division's diverse programs and functions, including the supervision of over 41,595 adult probation cases, 9,037 pretrial and family relations cases, and over 2,322 juvenile probation and detention cases daily.

He is also responsible for the administration of the Division's $214 million annual budget and oversight of the following business functions: Facilities and Materials Management, Human Resources, Information Technology, Programs and Services, Fiscal Administration, Research and Training.

JBCSSD manages over 150 community-centered contracts that provide evidenced-based client services in each Geographical Area/Judicial District Court. These services are designed to enhance judicial decision making, reduce prison/jail overcrowding, lower recidivism rates, and increase offender chances of successful reintegration. This network serves more than 7,400 adult and 250 juvenile clients daily through a continuum of interventions that include residential, substance abuse treatment, behavioral health, individual and group interventions, community services, educational, clinical and vocational support.

In addition, Mr. Roberge represents the Branch and Division on the following Commission and Committees: Connecticut Sentencing Commission, Criminal Justice Policy and Advisory Commission, Juvenile Justice Policy & Oversight committee, Governor's Nonprofit Cabinet on Health and Human Services and the CT. Alcohol and Drug Policy Council. He is also the Commissioner of Interstate Compact for Adult Offenders in Connecticut, a member of the Interstate Compact Adult Offender Supervision Executive Committee and the Chairperson of the Interstate Compact Finance Committee.

Mr. Roberge received his Bachelors of Science Degree from Eastern Connecticut State University and a Master's Degree in Public Administration from the University of Hartford, where he received the Capstone Project - Public Administration Management and Theory Award. Mr. Roberge is also an adjunct professor in the Central Connecticut State University Criminology Department.
