JUDGING PROCEDURES

- 1) So that it may remain anonymous, all entries submitted for screening and judging in accordance with these Judging Procedures shall be identified only by the identification number assigned to it by the Foundation pursuant to the Rules.
- 2) In the event that the total number of submissions exceeds 125, all submissions will be prescreened with reference to the Judging Criteria by the Prescreening Panel.
- 3) The top 125 entries, as determined by the Prescreening Panel, will be judged by a second panel (the "Selection Panel") composed of Fellows who are not members of the Prescreening Panel. Each of the entries will be judged independently by at least five members of the Selection Panel in accordance with the Judging Criteria.
- 4) The total number of points assigned to an entry by the reviewing judges of the Selection Panel shall be added together to determine the entry's total score. The entries receiving the ten highest scores (plus ties) shall be reviewed solely for the purpose of confirming that resource materials cited in the entry have not been fabricated in form or content and that language and concepts are not plagiarized. In the event that two or more panel members (the "Qualifying Panel") conclude that the entry has cited fabricated resource material, or that language or concepts have been plagiarized, the entry shall be disqualified.
- 5) Qualified entries receiving the six highest scores (plus ties) shall be submitted to a panel (the "Final Panel") comprising five Fellows and/or members of the bench who have not served as members of the Prescreening Panel, the Selection Panel or the Qualifying Panel. The Final Panel will not be advised of the score assigned to the entries submitted to it by the Selection Panel.
- 6) Each member of the Final Panel will judge each of the entries submitted in accordance with the Judging Criteria. The entry receiving the highest cumulative score shall be deemed the Statewide Winner and, thereafter, the two entries receiving the next highest scores shall be designated as Runner-Up Winners.
- 7) The decisions of the Prescreening Panel, the Selection Panel, the Qualifying Panel, and the Final Panel are final.
